About me

MY AWESOME STORY

I'm Nancy Gogazeh , Full stack developer trainee at Orange Coding Academy , I started web development training in 2022,July and I am still acquiring a strong knowledge and expertise in this field over time. I want this page to be a "not-so-formal" description of who I am, my main skills and my Projects during my trainig and why you should hire me. For a more formal introduction, you can download my resume
